

COCKRAN SEWED UP YOUNG MR. BRYAN

STIRRING ADDRESS TO NEW YORK GOLD MEN.

Famous Tammany Orator Makes Arguments for the Maintenance of the Existing Standard—Denies That Free Silver Will Be Beneficial—A Telling Declaration.

New York, Aug. 19.—The second notable demonstration of the political campaign in New York was held Tuesday night under the auspices of the Democratic Honest-Money League of America in Madison Square garden, where W. Bourke Cockran addressed a great audience with a speech entitled "In Opposition to Repudiation." Some of the points he made were as follows:

BOURKE COCKRAN.

"If Mr. Bryan could show me that by any means known to heaven or on earth wages could be increased I will be ready to support him, because I know of no test of prosperity absolutely infallible except the rate of wages paid to laborers.

"Nothing is more common than the mistake that money and property are identical. They are not. There may be a very large volume of circulating medium and very great poverty. The issue of paper money simply is no more an increase of wealth than the issue by an individual of his promissory note would show an increase of his property. As a matter of fact, an increase in the coinage is no proof of an increase in property, but may be a strong proof of a decrease in wealth. It is not the volume of money but the activity of money that counts."

"The basis of sound trade is sound money; money which is intrinsically valuable; money which—like the gold coinage of this country—the government cannot affect if it tried to. I can take a $10 gold piece and I can deface all the power of all the governments of this earth to take 5 cents of value from it. Having earned it by the sweat of my brow, having earned it by the exercise of my brain, having earned it by the exchange of my commodities, I can go to the uttermost ends of the earth, and wherever I present it its value will be unquestioned and unchallenged."

"In order that you should understand just how a change in the standard of values enables men to cheat their creditors you have to consider the function which money plays in measuring debts. If I had paid $10 for ten yards of cloth to be delivered to me next week, and in the interim the government should pass a law declaring that hereafter the yard measure should consist of eighteen inches and that all existing contracts should be settled in that system of measure, I would be cheated out of half the cloth for which I had paid. If, on the other hand, I owed a cloth merchant for ten yards of cloth, which he had delivered to me and which was payable next week, and in the meantime the government would change the standard of value and cut down the unit of coinage one-half, then I would settle that debt in $5 and the cloth merchant would have been cheated."

Gigantic Glass Trust Forming.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 19.—Members of the eastern and western window glass trusts will hold a secret meeting in Pittsburgh to-day for the purpose of consolidating and forming one of the strongest trusts in the union. The two control 90 per cent of the window glass houses in the nation. The new trust will be stronger and control more than 90 per cent of the stock, as the Chambers Window Glass Company has agreed to enter. Since the organization of the trust a year ago prices have advanced 33 per cent.

Omaha Filled with Delegates.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 19.—The delegates to the annual convention of the Young People's Christian union of the United Presbyterian church are gathering in the city at a rapid rate. The convention proper opens this evening. The addresses of welcome will be given by Gov. Holcomb, Mayor Broatch, the Rev. A. J. Turkle on behalf of the churches, and by the Rev. Edgar McDill on behalf of the committees. The programme fills in all of the time of the delegates, commencing Wednesday evening.

Alabama to Hold Convention.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 19.—The gold democrats of the state have issued a call for a state convention to be held in this city Thursday, Aug. 27, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the Indianapolis convention.

INDIANA GOLD MEN.

Provisional Committee Named and Mass Convention Called for Aug. 26.
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—The provisional state committee of the gold standard democrats is announced as follows: First district, Lee Howell, Evansville; second, E. J. Terhune, Linton; third, M. V. Hotel, Salem; fourth, Dr. A. May, Cruthersville; fifth, Thomas Carroll, Martinsville; sixth, Thomas Creamer, Richmond; seventh, S. O. Pickens, Indianapolis; eighth, John H. Smith, Muncie; ninth, Frank Daily, Lebanon; tenth, Thomas W. Hogan, Lafayette; eleventh, Charles A. Cole, Peru; twelfth, Perrie A. Randall, Fort Wayne; thirteenth, Joseph C. Orr, South Bend.

At a conference of the committee here it was decided that Indiana shall be organized for the new party immediately. A call was issued for district conventions Aug. 26 to elect delegates to the national convention.

There is renewed activity at national headquarters. Telegrams were received announcing that both Maryland and Nebraska would reconsider the decision not to send delegates to the convention. More than half the state will elect delegates one week from to-day.

TRIES TO MURDER HIS WIFE.

Indiana Man Also Shoots Her Brother and Stabs Himself.

Avilla, Ind., Aug. 19.—Emmett Cox, a farmer, attempted to murder his wife and brother-in-law early Tuesday morning. Some time ago Cox beat his wife, and she left him, returning to her father's house. Cox has been unable to effect a reconciliation, and during the night went to the barn and secreted himself to await her coming. As the wife and her brother, William Halferty, approached to do the morning chores, Cox sprang from his hiding place and began firing at them. At the first shot Mrs. Cox grabbed the revolver and received the bullet through her hand. Cox then struck her over the head with the weapon. The brother interfered, and Cox shot him twice, once in the leg and again in the right groin. The would-be murderer then fled, gashing his throat with a knife as he ran. He was captured and is in the county jail at Albion. His victims will recover.

Nationalists of Wisconsin.

Waupaca, Wis., Aug. 19.—A mass-meeting of the national party of Wisconsin was held here Tuesday to place in nomination a state ticket. The following nominations were made: For governor—Robert Henderson, Green Bay; for lieutenant governor—N. H. Scott, Stevensville; for secretary of state—E. B. Knowlton, Juneau; for treasurer—Lorenzo Crandall, Hudson; for attorney general—George Jones, Appleton; for state superintendent—W. L. Morrison, Clark; for insurance commissioner—E. E. Broadwell, Monroe; for railroad commissioner—A. Christenson, Bayfield. The platform adopted indorses the national platform of the party and the national candidates, Bentley and Southgate.

Missouri Republican Clubs.

Milan, Mo., Aug. 19.—The Missouri state campaign was opened at Chillicothe Tuesday, the occasion being the annual meeting of the republican league clubs of the state. All the state candidates are present and the convention is under the control of Chauncey Filley. The crowd is estimated at 10,000 visitors. Charles A. Loomis of Chillicothe delivered the address of welcome, and to-day the formal opening of the state campaign occurs in the large tent, which has a seating capacity of 6,000.

Colored Men Visit McKinley.

Canton, Ohio, Aug. 19.—Tuesday the L'Ouvertures of Cleveland, an independent colored organization, came down to call on Maj. McKinley. They were accompanied by their wives and children, 400 in all. At the McKinley home there was a short formal address by their spokesman, H. C. Smith, a newspaper man of Cleveland, to which Maj. McKinley responded. McKinley's appearance was greeted with hearty applause and there was much cheering during his speech.

Chairman Jones Goes to Chicago.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Senator Jones, chairman of the national democratic committee, left Washington at 10 o'clock this morning for Chicago, where he will meet the three western members of the campaign committee. The location of national headquarters at Chicago has been left to the Illinois member of the national committee, and Senator Jones does not expect any trouble in securing the necessary quarters.

Want Senator Hill.

New York, Aug. 19.—It is announced that Senator Gorman has been commissioned by the democratic national committee to see Senator Hill and induce him to come out for the democratic ticket and make some speeches in the campaign. Senator Gorman is now in Saratoga, and will remain there until some time in September. It is said he will call on Senator Hill at Albany in a few days and have a talk with him about the campaign.

Will Make a Joint Campaign.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 19.—The democratic state central committee met here and organized for the campaign. It was voted to hire a building in connection with the populist and free-silver republican state committees and to make a joint campaign.

UNCLE SAM AHEAD ON THE MAIN POINT

VENEZUELA QUESTION ASSUMES BETTER SHAPE.

Lord Salisbury Concedes the Principal Item—All Is to Be Arbitrated and Settled Districts Not to Be Held Out—It Is Now Likely the Dispute Can Be Closed Amicably.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The cable report from London that Lord Salisbury has yielded to Secretary Olney on the crucial point of the Venezuelan negotiations—that of including the settled portions of the disputed tract in the proposed arbitration—is regarded as an important development by those interested in the subject. This inclusion of the "settled districts" has been the chief obstacle in the way of arbitration, so that if the report of its removal is confirmed the two governments appear to be nearer to an amicable agreement than at any time since the trouble began.

Lord Salisbury from the first has insisted that this settled district was sovereign British soil, which could not be subjected to the judgment of arbitrators. Secretary Olney has urged that the omission of this settled portion from arbitration would defeat the whole scope of the arbitration, as the unsettled or worthless sections were not what Venezuela contended for. The latest view of this phase was presented in a brief by Mr. Storow, a lawyer of Boston, of whose ability Mr. Olney has a high opinion. The Storow brief was laid before the Venezuelan commission as a part of the Venezuela case, but aside from this it is known that its line of argument was similar to that taken by the secretary of state. Mr. Storow pointed out that the "settled district" was in fact but little settled; that the number of British colonists there was comparatively insignificant; that their "improvements," on which Lord Salisbury had laid much stress, were of the most meager and primitive kind, and that the whole money value of existing British settlements—houses, improvements, etc.—would be a comparatively small sum.

From this the conclusion was drawn that these so-called settled districts should not stand in the way of the adjustment of so large a question. There has been no intimation that this view was shared by the British authorities until the cable dispatches stating that on what is believed to be the inspired authority of the Bradford Observer that the point was conceded by Lord Salisbury.

The further suggestion is made that cash payment will be made for the improvements of the British settlers in case Venezuela is awarded the territory, but no reference is made as to who will pay the indemnity, although it is construed here to mean that Great Britain will mollify those of her subjects who are dispossessed.

Cleveland May Write a Letter.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The general impression among democrats here is that President Cleveland will write a very strong letter to be read to the "sound-money" democratic convention at Indianapolis. The majority of the leaders at headquarters here expect that Mr. Cleveland will indorse a second democratic ticket, but others claim that in his letter he will advocate voting directly for Mr. McKinley.

Police Chiefs of Indiana Meet.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—About twenty-five police chiefs of Indiana gathered at the Grand hotel Tuesday for the annual meeting of their state association. Thomas Colbert of Indianapolis was elected president and W. H. Fortner was chosen secretary for the ensuing year. The rest of the day was devoted to discussions of the experiences of various members in handling criminals.

Hale Johnson at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 19.—The prohibition campaign in Ohio was opened Tuesday at Glenwood park, near Cleveland, by Hale Johnson of Newton, Ill., vice-presidential candidate of the prohibitionists. A large crowd assembled to hear Mr. Johnson. In the evening he addressed an audience of 5,000 people from a platform in the public square of this city.

Was Within Forbidden Waters.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 19.—Judgment was delivered by the chief justice in the admiralty court in the case of the seized American fishing schooner Frederick Gering sustaining the seizure and ordering the vessel forfeited to the Canadian government. The Gering was seized for fishing within the three-mile limit.

CROP OUTLOOK FAIR THE WORLD OVER

GOOD REPORTS FROM EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

Prospect as Revealed in Government Bulletins Is Generally Favorable—Nothing Less Than Average Harvests Locked For Anywhere—Prices May Be Low.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Generally favorable prospects for the crops of Europe are announced in the report of the European agent of the agricultural department. The report follows by countries:

Great Britain—Harvest is half over and it is believed wheat will closely approximate thirty-two bushels per acre, the highest average for many years. The total harvest will approximate 56,000,000 bushels, the area being only about 1,750,000 acres. The barley crop will be very good and is generally in good condition. Oats are expected to fall considerably below the average. The hay crop is seriously deficient. A continuance of the summer drought through the autumn will result in such scarcity of feeding stuffs as to lessen materially the value and number of cattle and sheep.

France—Winter wheat is looking well or very well in nearly all the departments where autumn-sown cereals are grown. Spring wheat is reported as good or very good. The harvest will be completed early and it is confidently expected that it will somewhat exceed that of last year, 340,000,000 bushels.

Germany—Wheat harvest is beginning. The lowest estimate is 98,000,000, the highest 112,000,000 bushels. The barley crop is reported to be exceptionally good, both in quantity and condition; rye a good average. The potato crop, an important one in this country, is reported as average at least.

Russia—The harvest in the southern part will be delayed by moisture and cool weather during the end of July, particularly the barley harvest. Reports from the southwest indicate that wheat will be under the average, but elsewhere throughout the country a good average seems to be expected.

Spain, Portugal, Austria-Hungary, Roumania, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway all report average crops.

WON'T DROP WATSON.

Members of Populist National Committee Gather at Washington.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Senator Butler, of North Carolina, chairman of the national committee of the Populist party, and other members of the executive committee of that party arrived Tuesday to attend the meeting of Populist managers. It was decided, even before the executive committee met, that the national headquarters would be in Washington.

One of the interesting matters which possibly may be brought up is the vice-presidency, though it is known that the executive committee will listen to no proposition looking to the withdrawal of Tom Watson from the ticket. Senator Butler said that if Sewall had stood for what Bryan does before the people, neither the holding of the Populist party organization together nor anything else would have prevented the nomination of the whole Democratic ticket by the Populists. As it is, Sewall does not represent the Populists and under no circumstances will they consent to vote for him. He thinks that Watson stands a better chance of being the next Vice President than Sewall.

Another matter to be settled by the meeting of the executive committee is the notification of Watson. Mr. Butler is chairman of the notification committee. He says that nothing definite has been arranged as yet. Senator Butler says he has been so busy with affairs in his own State since the national convention adjourned that he has had little correspondence with members of the notification committee.

Campaign in Illinois.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 19.—Tuesday the Illinois state republican campaign was formally opened in this city. The speaking took place in Central park, where a great stand had been erected for the purpose, and seats arranged for 5,000 people. The afternoon's program began with music, and, afterward, I. L. Morrison introduced Captain Tanner, who spoke for fifteen minutes only, as he was feeling far from well. Senator Burrows of Michigan was the main speaker, and he addressed the people for nearly two hours. Senator Cullom, who was to have given the principal address of the evening, was kept from filling his engagement by illness, and, accordingly, Nominee General John I. Rinaker, Edward Aiken, James Rose and others made short speeches.

Gov. Matthews' Condition Improves.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—Gov. Matthews was considerably improved Tuesday and ventured down to the office for a few moments, but returned home, as he felt worse for the exercise. He is suffering from a heavy cold and looks pale and worn.

Harrison to Open Iowa's Campaign.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 19.—It has been decided to open the Iowa campaign on Sept. 3, with Senator Allison, Benjamin Harrison and Robert G. Cousins as orators.

MAKES A FLAT DENIAL.

Mr. Bryan Answers Charges Made by Senator Thurston.

Upper Red Hook, N. Y., Aug. 19.—William J. Bryan, for the first time since Senator John M. Thurston, as alleged, declared that he (Bryan) was in the employ of mine-owners, made an official denial, coupled with a challenge to the national republican committee to come out in the open and accuse him or forever be silent. He said: "I have never at any time or under any circumstances been in the employ of any mine-owners, individually or collectively, nor have I ever been in the employ of, or paid by any bimetallic league or association. Aside from my editorial salary of about $150 a month, paid by the Omaha World-Herald, and a small amount derived from the legal profession, my income since my retirement from congress has been derived entirely from lectures before Chautauqua, lyceum and lecture bureaus, which have usually paid me a fixed sum, and from contributions made by the people of the localities where I have spoken. In some instances I have received nothing at all. If the republican national committee will say officially that I have ever been employed to deliver speeches by any mine-owner, a group of mine-owners or by any association supported by mine-owners, I am ready to make a statement showing in detail all money received by me for speechmaking."

LEGAL LIGHTS SHINE.

Meeting of the American Bar Association at Saratoga, N. Y.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The nineteenth annual meeting of the American Bar Association, which began this morning in the convention hall, is the most largely attended and the most eventful, so far in its history.

This body, representing every state and territory in the United States, will continue in session three days and will conclude with a banquet Friday night. The auxiliary sections of legal education and patent law will hold sessions on the same days.

The fact that Baron Russell, Lord Chief Justice of England, and other distinguished members of the British bar will be guests of the association and will take a prominent part in the proceedings attaches to the meeting an international importance.

Millers' Combine Is Broken.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 19.—A private dispatch from the east states that the millers' combination is a thing of the past and the millers are free to do as they please once more. Milwaukee members of the combine deny the report although admitting that there is some foundation for it. They state that the minimum selling price has been removed and that there is now no limit to selling either way. Otherwise, it was asserted, all of the agreements were in force, and the association was fully as active as ever. The removal of the selling price limit, however, will operate to place the eastern members on the same footing as the western mills, and probably those at Minneapolis.

Attempt to Kill a Princess.

Madrid, Aug. 19.—The Herald says an attempt was recently made by anarchists to blow up the chateau at La Granja, where the Infanta Isabella is now residing. It is claimed that this attempt upon the life of the infanta was easily frustrated, but no official confirmation of the entire story can be obtained. Many republican ex-ministers and members of the chamber of deputies have been arrested in Barcelona on the charge of conducting a revolutionary agitation. An alleged plot to prevent the departure of reinforcements for Cuba has been discovered in that city.

Five Said to Be Killed in a Mine.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 19.—Five men are reported killed and others injured by a falling cage in the St. Lawrence mine, near this city. The extent of the accident and loss of life is not yet known owing to obstructions in the shaft. The accident was due to a breaking of the cable reel, the cage dropping with lightning speed to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of 1,500 feet, and carrying down Foreman Ryan, John Campbell and two other men.

Cannot Revoke Franchises.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 19.—Justice Woolson handed down an opinion in the federal court Tuesday that acts nearly every city in Iowa of a second class. He decided in the case of Lewis vs. the City of Newton that prior to 1888 cities of the second class had a right to grant perpetual franchises, although there was expressed authority in the statutes that effect. Nearly every second-class town in the state has franchises prior to 1888.

Fusion in South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 19.—The democratic state committee, by a unanimous vote, have decided to call off the state convention called to meet in Deadwood September. This completes the fusion in South Dakota.

Possible in Missouri.

Fest, Mo., Aug. 19.—Events are so shaped that a fusion of state, local and congressional tickets in Missouri may be agreed upon by the populist and democratic state committees, whose headquarters are in this city.

FOX RIVER WATER HELD IN COMMON

ALL THE POWER OWNERS TO UNITE.

Plans for Consolidation Have Been Perfected and the Last Steps Are Being Taken Today—Much Litigation Has Been Done Away With By the Agreement.

Appleton, Aug. 19.—There is every probability that the consolidation of all the water power interest of the Fox River Valley by the organization of the Menasha and Neenah Water Power Company, will be accomplished at a meeting of various parties at Neenah today. The consolidation plan has been discussed for over a year but was first given a definite shape last winter when W. Z. Stuart of the Kimberley & Clark Company of Neenah, began the work of organizing a company for that purpose. For months the work has gone on. A committee of eminent water power attorneys was employed to draw up a plan of consolidation wherein all points of difference between the various conflicting interests should be equitably adjusted, and this plan was after much discussion and some modification finally adopted by the parties in interest, which include all the water power owners and lessees from Neenah and Menasha to De Pere.

It is expected that under the new arrangements, with all the water under the control of a single company a very considerable savings of water will be made which will aid in conserving the power. The apportionment of water among the users will be made therefore under more favorable conditions than has heretofore been possible. By the new arrangement a cloud of litigation which for years has hampered many of the holders of conflicting rights will be done away with.

BASEBALL REPORT.

Games Played in the National League Yesterday.

The champions outplayed the Phillies at every point yesterday and made it four straight. Brooklyn won a game with the assistance of the rainstorm, which ended the game at the fifth inning. Only these two were played. Scores:

At Philadelphia—
Baltimore ..... 1 1 3 0 1 0 2 1 *—9
Philadelphia ..... 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1—2
At Boston—
Brooklyn ..... 4 0 0 1 0—5
Boston ..... 0 0 0 1 0—1

The New York-Washington game at New York was called at the end of the first inning on account of rain, the score standing 2 to 0 in favor of New York.

Western League.

Detroit, 5; Indianapolis, 0. Second game—Indianapolis, 7; Detroit, 8. Columbus, 7; Grand Rapids, 6. St. Paul, 29; Milwaukee, 6. Minneapolis, 6; Kansas City, 2.

TROUBLE IS FEARED.

Striking Tin-Plate Workers Threaten to Stop the Non-Union Men.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—The state authorities are watching the situation at Elwood, where the American tin-plate works are to be started with non-union labor. It was announced from Anderson that the militia company in that city had been ordered to hold itself in readiness to move to Elwood, but Gov. Matthews and Adj. Gen. Robbins say that no orders have been issued to the company.

The 300 upon men who refused to submit to a cut of 15 per cent in their wages declare that the works shall not be started with non-union men, and the strikers have detailed men to guard the factory and see that non-union men do not enter. They say they can get 5,000 men to help them within three hours.

Hanna's Campaign Plans.

New York, Aug. 19.—The first thing done by Chairman Hanna and his associates Tuesday was to obtain information about the conditions and outlook in the close states. Wherever there is a chance of carrying a state by thorough campaign work the national committee stands ready to aid local organizations in every legitimate way, but in localities where a fight would be hopeless they do not propose to waste any orators or literature. It has been practically decided that the real battle must be fought in the middle western states and in a few of the border states like Maryland and West Virginia and Kentucky.

Big Trust Goes Under.

Philadelphia, Aug. 19.—After being in existence for one year, during which time difficulties of various kinds were experienced, the mammoth window shade trust has surrendered its hold on life. Five big Philadelphia firms were in it and only one remained out. Rate cutting followed, when the price of oils and naphtha was raised. As a consequence shade prices are 20 per cent lower than they were a year ago.

Nonsense.

The reason talk is always cheap. Declares a cynic neighbor, is cause the major part of it is done by female labor.

BURR ROBBINS' BARN WAS A LAND MARK

FIRE AT SPRING BROOK RECALLS OLD DAYS.

Big Red Building Was the Main Art Hall on the State Fair Grounds Before the War—Barstow's Cavalry Barracked There in Early Sixties.

A landmark was wiped out by the fire that destroyed the old Burr Robbins barn, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The building was put up in the "fifties," and was the main art hall of the state fair. The first time the state fair was held in Janesville it was where the Jefferson school now stands, in the Third ward, and the grounds were unenclosed. The second year, grounds were laid out at Spring Brook, and this hall was put up. It was not only the main hall, it was the only hall, and was regarded as unusually commodious.

When the war came on, the art hall was put to grimmer uses. Barstow's Cavalry, the Third Wisconsin, rendezvoused here, and the Spring Brook fair grounds became Camp Cameron. The regiment used the art hall as barracks until a start was made for the south.

The hall lay idle for a good many years but how many dog fights and cocking mains were pulled off there would be hard to say.

Used As a Circus Barn

When Burr Robbins came to the city to winter he rented the hall and turned it into a horse barn. The next year he bought the property and the name of Burr Robbins has been associated with it ever since.

When real estate deals in that part of the city resulted in the platting of the Spring Brook addition, John Barstow, A. E. Bingham and A. E. Shumway became owners of the building. They pulled straws to see who should get it and Mr. Shumway was the winner.

The barn has been unused for some time. It was partly filled with hay and straw and boys are believed to have been smoking in the loft when the fire started. When the department arrived the building was too far gone and, as nothing could be saved, not a line of hose was laid. The fire engine was also there, but was not used.

The building was insured for $500 in the Hayner & Beers agency.

GOOD TIMES AT THE A. O. H. PICNIC

Boats Kept Well-Filled—Parade of the Society At 1 O'clock

Every half hour today boats full of picnickers went up the river. They were bound to get all the fun possible and they started early, for the A. O. H. outing comes but once a year.

The parade of the society, headed by the Imperial band, took place at 1 o'clock and at 2:30 the speaking began. Senator W. O. Silverthorn discussed the free silver question, and there were remarks by local speakers.

During the afternoon there were games and races and Johnny Smith furnished music for dancing.

EVENING OF ICE CREAM SOCIALS.

First M. E. and St. John's German Lutheran Churches Fared Well

When the First M. E. church social began last evening ninety banks were all of ten cent pieces. When the affair ended the banks were empty and every guest was concealing an amount of ice cream. There were brief remarks by Rev. R. K. Manston in lieu of a musical and literary program and the social was pronounced very successful.

Ladies of St. John's Lutheran church served ice cream in the church lawn last evening. The trees were full of Japanese lanterns and the grounds presented a very attractive appearance.

PETRIFIED GIRL DRAWS POORLY.

M. D. Reed Says Janesville People Don't Appreciate Things of Beauty.

Petrified women are no appreciated in Janesville. "Folks here have no sense of the beautiful," says M. D. Reed, summing it up, as Mr. Reed owns a petrified woman and is familiar with art sentiment in all lands, he ought to be good authority. Mr. Reed arrived in the city last Sunday with a covered wagon that sheltered his petrified girl. He charged five cents a gaze, but even at this small price the local public showed deep interest. Early this morning Reed pulled stakes and headed for Beloit.

RETAIL CLERKS MEET TUESDAY

Temporary Organization Will be Formed—Prospects are Bright.

For the formation of a Janesville branch of the Retail Clerks National Protective association a meeting has been called for next Tuesday evening at Union Labor hall. A temporary organization will then be formed. Labor Organizer Whitaker says that the prospects are encouraging and that the new move is bound to be a success.

CLINTON REPUBLICANS IN LINE

S. M. Fisher at the Head of the Republican League Club.

Clinton republicans have organized a rousing republican league club with these officers:

President—S. M. Fisher.
Secretary—W. O. Newhouse.
Treasurer—Fay Griswold.
Executive Committee—S. S. Jones, F. B. Rogers, W. A. Mayhew, Martin Reimer, and F. R. Helmer.
The next meeting will be held Saturday, August 29.

W. C. T. U. VISIT THE ASYLUM.

Inmates Made Happy By The Numerous Gifts That Are Left.

North Johnstown, Aug. 18—A very pleasant time was had by those who visited the Rock county asylum, Wednesday. A program of exercises was given by the W. C. T. U. for the benefit of the inmates. Literature, apples and bouquets with scripture text cards were distributed. Several were present from Janesville. The asylum and elms house under the excellent management of Mr. and Mrs. Allen are a model of neatness and as homelike as they can possibly be made. The W. C. T. U. will celebrate the tenth anniversary of its organization with a public entertainment at the church, Wednesday evening of next week, August 26. All are cordially invited. Admission free.

Misses May Steele, Inez Killian and Edith Palmer, attended the teachers institute at Milton last week. Miss Houshah, of Fond du Lac, has been the guest of Miss Edith Dickinson for a week past. The latest arrival is a fine baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bingham, Saturday. Mrs. Mina Douglass and son Orrin, of Whitewater, visited friends in this vicinity last week. Charles Russell's family, of Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting at O. Bennett's. Mr. Russell is a cousin of Mrs. Bennett. Several from this place attended the temperance play, "The Last Leaf," at Utter's Corners, Thursday evening and pronounced it good. Mrs. Hattie Callison, and son Oscar, are spending the week at C. B. Palmer's. Mrs. C. Brotherton is home again. Mrs. Bevens and daughter, Ethel, spent Friday with friends at Milton Junction. Miss Edith Dickinson and Miss Houshah spent Sunday at Frank Wheeler's at Whitewater. Mr. Olney, of Rutland, occupied the pulpit here Sunday and preached a very entertaining sermon. He was accompanied by Mr. Dennis of the same place. The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held with Mrs. M. J. Hull on Thursday afternoon, of next week. Rev. G. K. Chambers and wife, of Milton, visited at H. R. Osborn's Monday.

SURE CURE FOR ROUPY FOWLS

Gazette Correspondent Says His Remedy Is Certain

EDITOR GAZETTE—I see by your paper of the 15th that Rock county is suffering from what is known as roup, a dread chicken disease. As I have a friendly feeling for old Rock, I should like to recommend the following, the best known remedy now in use.

Affected fowls should be killed and buried or removed from the well ones. Give dry, warm quarters and soft, stimulating food. Give small fowl one-half tablespoon, and large one, one tablespoon castor oil. Insert small syringe in slit in roof of mouth, and syringe nostrils with one part chloride of soda to two parts water. Three or four hours after the oil has been given, give the following three times a day:

Balsam Copaiba, 4 dr.
Powdered Licorice, 2 dr.
Peppermint, 1 dr.

This is enough for thirty doses. Enclose each dose in a little gelatine. Bury all dead fowls.

The silver men are getting scarcer every day in Western Iowa. Hurrah for McKinley, yes, and for Theo Ahe son.

SAM PIERCE, V. S.,
Charter Oak, Iowa.

SMALLER TUBING FOR '97 WHEELS

Janesville Visited By Several Agents For Manufacturers—New Models Ready

There will be but little change in the '97 model bicycle. So manufacturers' agents declare. Two Chicago bicycle dealers who have been in the city this week say that orders are now being taken all over the country for the coming wheel. Fewer changes will be made than have been made any year since the two-wheel machine was marketed. The principal changes will be in the tubing. The upper or cross bar on several well known wheels will be one inch in diameter; the lower, one and one-eighth inch, while the head or front tube will be one and one-fourth inch. Barrel hubs of a smaller pattern will be the rule.

BAD MAN AFTER CHURCH MONEY

He Claims To Be Raising Funds To Aid Oshkosh Christians.

Chief Acheson is looking out for a man with a hard name and a saintly look. The name is Michael Polewezyanski. He used to live in Oshkosh, but he is said to be traveling through this part of the state soliciting subscriptions to build a Polish church in Oshkosh. Valentine Budtisz, president of St. John's society, Oshkosh, writes to the chief of police, saying: "He has no authority to do this, and could be arrested for obtaining money for false pretences. This is to warn persons against giving this man money for said purpose."

RIVALS PLAY HERE FOR A PURSE OF $500

BALL PLAYERS TO MEET IN FIERCE CONTEST.

Janesville Has Been Selected as Neutral Ground For a Series of Three Games to Be Played By Edgerton and Sharon Clubs Next Week.

Three hot games of ball next week will decide the ownership of a $500 purse and the Edgerton-Sharon championship.

Janesville, as neutral ground, will be the scene of the struggle.

Henry Johnson, manager of the Edgerton base ball club, and C. E. Rogers, manager of the Sharon nine, were in the city today, perfecting arrangements for a series of games to be played at Athletic Park August 24, 25 and 26. The Edgerton club accepted the challenge made by the Sharon team, of which The Gazette spoke a few days ago, and a purse of $500 has been deposited with the sporting editor of The Gazette, which with two-thirds of the gate receipts for the three games go to the winner. There has been a great rivalry between the two nines. Both are very strong and three of the hottest games of the season may be looked for. Two games have been played this season, one in Sharon and one in Edgerton. The Sharon team will be strengthened by players from the Western Association, and Edgerton will have but few of their regular men.

WHAT 16 TO 1 MEANS.

A Brief Explanation of the Phrase Now On Every One's Tongue.

Sixteen to one means, in practice, that 16 ounces of silver shall be held as worth as much as one ounce of gold.

One ounce of gold, American coin standard of fineness (that is, 900 parts of pure gold to 100 of alloy) will coin in gold dollars, $18.60. Sixteen ounces of silver, American coin standard of fineness (that is, 900 parts of pure silver to 100 of alloy,) at the rate of 41 2/3 grains to the dollar (the weight of the present standard silver dollar,) will coin $18.60 in silver dollars. These 16 ounces of silver can be bought in the markets of the world today for $9.94.

There would, therefore, be a profit of $8.66 on an investment of $9.94, being about 87 per cent, if a holder of silver could take it to the mint and coin it without charge into silver dollars.

The advocates of free coinage favor a law that will allow any holder of silver bullion, to have the right to take the same to any mint of the United States and convert it into silver coin free of charge.

PROHIBITION COUNTY CONVENTION

It Will Be Held In This City On August 27.

The Prohibition County convention will be held in this city on Thursday, August 27, at 10 o'clock a. m. The following call has been sent The Gazette:

By Way of Comparison.

"You were having a quarrel with the prosecuting witness, were you not?" said the judge in an effort to straighten out a complicated case.

"O' wor," was the reply.

"And it was a very severe quarrel."

"I' wor. An' it kep' gettin' worsen an' worsen."

"Can you give me some idea of how bad it was?"

"Well, yer honor, at wan toime Oi tink it wor most as bad as what's been goin' on bechune the lawyers in this case."—Washington Star.

A Possible Explanation.

"Do you know," she said in her pleasing, ingenuous way, "I used to be quite superstitious, but I am getting over it."

"Really?" he asked, for want of something better to say.

"Oh, yes, indeed. Why, I saw a pin to-day with its point toward me and never stopped to pick it up."

"I told you, Mamie," broke in the small brother, whose presence had not been suspected up to this time, "that those new corsets were too tight."—Chicago Post.

One Way to Find Out.

It was just after the honeymoon, and she had undertaken to get a breakfast for him with her own hands, in spite of the fact that she was inexperienced.

"I think this egg is bad, Harry," she said. "How can I find out for sure?"

"Taste it," he replied promptly.

"That's why he went to his office hungry that morning."—Chicago Post.

What He Liked.

"What do I like about that girl?"

Now, surely, 'tis no task To answer straight and quickly, too.

The question that you ask.

"What do I like about that girl?"

Mrs. Hard—Do have some more cream, Miss Sweettooth!

Miss Sweettooth (hesitatingly)—Well, just a little, Mrs. Hard. Only a mouthful.

Mrs. Hard—Bridget, fill Miss Sweettooth's plate up again.—Tit-Bits.

Pointless Jokes.

Mr. Gilley (at 10:55 p. m.)—There's nothin' funny in these jokes about young men staying late when they call on the girls.

Miss Kissam (with a sigh and a yawn)—I see nothin' funny in them, either. —N. Y. World.

He Will.

"Oh, Edgar, darling, here is a case of a woman who was struck dumb by lightning. Do you suppose her husband will love her still?"

"Certainly, my dear, he would be a freak if he didn't."—Detroit Free Press.

Why He Was Silent.

Wyld—That barber has shaved me for two years, and I don't believe I have spoken a dozen words to him.

Mack—How is that?

Wyld—He has never given me a chance.—Brooklyn Life.

An Apt Description.

A NORDINANCE to regulate the use of bicycles and similar vehicles in the city of Janesville.

Section 1. No person shall ride a bicycle or similar vehicle upon any street, alley or public ground in the city of Janesville at a speed exceeding ten miles an hour, or in such a manner as to endanger pedestrians traveling upon or crossing such streets, alleys or public grounds.

Section 2. No person shall ride a bicycle or similar vehicle at any time upon the sidewalk on any street in said city, and any person riding such vehicle shall keep to the right of the sidewalk or traveled part of any street or alley, and not more than two persons shall ride abreast except in a general parade or public demonstration and any person riding such vehicle shall give the right of way to all pedestrians walking upon such street.

Section 3. Every person riding any bicycle or similar vehicle shall at all times be provided with a suitable bell, whistle or alarm signal and give proper and sufficient warning of approach by sounding the same, and shall during the evening and night time be provided with a suitable lamp or lantern lighted and attached to the vehicle in such a manner that the same will be a warning of approach; provided however that neither this nor the foregoing sections shall be construed to apply to baby carriages or to three or four wheeled vehicles operated by children under twelve years of age.

Section 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit upon any of the streets, alleys or public grounds in the city of Janesville any klieg glass, tacks, nails, wire, or other things tending to injure any bicycle or other vehicle.

Section 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall pay a penalty of not more than ten dollars nor less than one dollar.

Section 6. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication, which publication shall be for three consecutive days.

Passed August 17th, 1896.

Approved: F. S. BAINES, Mayor.

A. E. BADGER, City Clerk.

Bankrupt Sale of Bicycles!
AT GIMBEL'S, MILWAUKEE.

"We, the Moore Standard Bicycle Company, have sold our entire production of high-grade Wheels, lately inventoried at nearly $25,000.00 for less than 35c on the dollar, to Gimbel Brothers.

(Signed)
MOORE STANDARD BICYCLE CO.

We place on sale for distribution throughout this state the entire production of the Moore Cycle Co., of Milwaukee, which recently failed.

The stock of Wheels on hand at the time of the failure

INVENTORIED NEARLY $25,000

By taking this, the entire lot of high-grade Wheels, at a strictly cash price, we are able to MAKE THEM $33.00—FOR MEN AND WOMEN...

The Moore Bicycles are of the highest grade made and sell for $100.00.

The Wheel is so well known that no description of it is necessary here.

If you wish one, send in your order at once. It is hardly probable that there will be any left at the end of the month.

Terms are cash unless you have an account with the store. Wheels will not be sent C. O. D. unless a sufficient amount is sent to cover the express charges. Where cash accompanies the order, we will deliver the wheel free.

GIMBEL BROTHERS, Milwaukee.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1186—Geoffrey Plantagenet, brother of Richard Cour de Lion and father of the murdered Arthur, was thrown from his horse and trampled to death in Paris.

1596—Birth at Holyrood palace, Scotland, of Elizabeth Stuart, daughter of James VI (and I of England), who married the Elector Palatine and thus founded the present British reigning family.

1692—Second general execution of "witches" at Salem, Mass.; John Proctor, Bridget Bishop, George Burroughs, Martha Carrier and John Willard were hanged.

1806—James Lenox, philanthropist, founder of the Lenox library, born in New York city; died there 1880.

1814—Count Rumford of Bavaria died; born Benjamin Thompson in Massachusetts 1752; driven away as a Tory.

1892—Troops led into an ambush by the striking Tennessee miners and many of them killed. The strike in Buffalo was broken, and the railroads resumed operations in that city.

Assembly District Convention.

The republican Second Assembly District Convention of Rock county is hereby called to meet at the Patrons of Husbandry hall in Milton Junction, Wis., Thursday, August 26, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the assembly for the Second Assembly District of Rock county, and transact any other business that may properly come before the convention.

The different towns, villages and cities of the district are entitled to delegates as follows: Bradford, Harmony, Johnston, two each; Center, Lima, Magnolia, Porter, Union, three each; Fulton, city of Edgerton, four each; village of Evansville, six; Milton, eight. By order of Committee, A. EAGER, Chairman.

THE JOURNAL BOLTS.

The Milwaukee Journal can stand it no longer. It has spread grief through the poperaic camp by coming out solidly for the democratic sound money movement. In a double column editorial, made emphatic by the most prominent display, the Journal last evening declared:

"The democratic convention, which will assemble in Milwaukee next week, will be an impressive spectacle. It will show that there are democrats who will not permit their eyes to be blinded by the glare of a false light, bright and entrancing though it may appear to others. They are men who have the true light of democracy so fixed in their minds that they cannot mistake any false light for the genuine article. They are earnest in their purpose to preserve the principles of the party and make them the rallying point of the future when those who have wandered away shall return to the true path and set themselves resolutely to the task of obliterating the effects of their mistake."

"Every democrat who has the welfare of the party at heart and believes that it has been, from its organization, the party of the people, the only political organization ever formed on such a solid and enduring basis as to remain unaffected by all the accidents and transmutations of politics, should view this matter carefully and earnestly. He should determine to contribute, as best he can, to the impressiveness of the occasion when, with others of the same belief, he stands forth to help uphold the principles for which he has contended in past years."

"Though we feel that this movement is tardy it may not be too late to make it effective in its results. At any rate, now that the call to arms is issued, this is no time for the consideration of the objection that the work of reorganizing the democratic party has been delayed. In fact, that objection merely serves to emphasize the necessity of losing no time now that it is fairly under way. Let the faithful democrats of Wisconsin come to the front determined to do what they can to remedy the mistakes that have been made and aid in perfecting a new organization that will serve as a rallying point from whence the democratic party can move forward in the next campaign rehabilitated and in condition to resume the contest for those true principles of the party which can never die so long as there is a necessity for a party of the people to watch and guard their interests."

In another article the Journal scores Chairman Peck of the silver state committee for allowing the suit to test the republican gerrymander to go by default. It calls attention to the fact that his removal as chairman is threatened on the ground that he professes to be a gold man and yet remains in command of the silver forces.

NO ORDERS NEEDED.

Somebody started a story the other day that the Chicago &amp; Northwestern was ordering all of its employees to vote for McKinley. How absurd the story is may be judged from the fact that railroad men almost without exception are for McKinley this year before any persuasion has been used. They know that the roads could not increase freight or passenger charges under free coinage while the interest on bonds and other fixed charges would be paid in gold. Wages could not be increased therefore and would really be cut in two through being paid in 50 cent instead of 100 cent dollars. Railroad employees understand all this and understand that they cannot prosper unless the road they serve is prospering. They need no orders, and no company would be so short-sighted as to send out anything in the nature of orders on such a subject.

HANS B. WARNER.

In the death of Hon. Hans B. Warner, president of the state board of control the state loses a valuable officer and the board one of its most useful members. A man of strict integrity, impartial judgment and conservative disposition, he presided over the board with dignity and with a fairness that was always conducive to harmony and good fellowship. Among the state institutions he was very popular. A kindly word or a pleasant smile for all employees bespoke his genial disposition and fatherly interest. He will be missed in public life, as well as from the home circle where his qualities of mind and heart were most fully appreciated.

NOT MR. ST. JOHN'S FAULT.

The success of the sound money meeting in New York last night is said to have embittered Mr. Bryan more than ever. He claims that his own Madison Square demonstration and Windsor Hotel reception were marred because Banker St. John did not plan and manage them properly. This seems unjust. In so far as Mr. St. John's responsibility for these affairs is concerned, he must be held blameless. It was not in his power to detain people by force at the Garden or to drag them into the hotel. If a little of Mr. Bryan goes a long way why should the patient, zealous, indefatigable Mr. St. John get hard looks therefor from populists and populists?

As if it were not enough to have the Milwaukee Journal and the LaCrosse Chronicle scoring him Chairman Peck is now assailed by the Milwaukee Daily News, the only free silver daily in Milwaukee. The News demands that he be retired from the chairmanship and deals with him most savagely.

Give Mr. Bryan a chance. He didn't do very well at his first attempt in New York, but why not let him appear again? There is another nomination to be accepted yet, and he would feel more at home speaking to populists than he did to democrats.

The great trouble about repudiation is that you can't pay debts with it more than once.

David B. Hill is still a democrat and a mighty still democrat, too.

It is a wise democrat that knows his own party this year.

Sorrow's Recompense.

CITY MADE LIVELY
BY TWO REUNIONSCOUNTY ASSOCIATION AND 13TH REGIMENT HERE.

W. J. McIntyre Re-elected President of the First Named Society, While Captain Pliny Norcross Succeeds S. C. Cobb at the Head of the Other.

A thousand people were jammed around the east door of the court house today, cheering the words of Colonel W. P. Lyon, of Madison; Captain Fish, of Milwaukee; Lieutenant C. E. Matson, of Chicago; Comrade S. C. Cobb, of Whitewater; and Captain William Roger and Captain Pliny Norcross, of this city. The court house park was filled with the men who came to attend the two reunions—that of the Rock County Soldiers' and Sailors' Association, and that of the Thirtieth Regiment Association. Tents were pitched back of the court house, where members of the W. R. C. served dinner. A life and drum corps escorted delegations from the train.

The business side of the county association's reunion was taken up at 11 o'clock. It was voted to select historians for each town in the county, and have a military history of the county prepared, including a personal record of each soldier.

The old officers of the association were re-elected as follows:

President—W. J. McIntyre, Janesville.

Vice President—G. W. Dibble, Evansville.

Secretary—L. B. Beebe, Evansville.

Treasurer—W. G. Palmer, Janesville.

A straw vote was taken by William Mulligan and showed 127 for McKinley to 7 for Bryan.

It was decided that the meeting next year should be held in Milton Junction, the date to be determined later.

Norcross Reads the Thirteenth.

The members of the Thirtieth Wisconsin going together at 1 o'clock with President S. C. Cobb in the chair. Janesville was chosen as the place for the meeting next year. Captain Pliny Norcross was elected president and W. P. Clarke of Milton, secretary and treasurer. The members who answered to roll call were:

Colonel W. P. Lyon, Madison; F. B. Childs, Emerald Grove; P. Elfishick, Lima; A. Salisbury, Whitewater; C. R. Matson, Chicago; J. Collins, Lima; D. Collins, Lima; W. Cole, Milton; P. Murphy, Footville; Major S. C. Cobb, Janesville; Lieutenant E. F. Warren, Albany; Dr. C. I. Miller, Whitewater; S. S. O'Brien, Milton; A. Alder, Edgerton; W. Littlejohns, Milton Junction; Captain S. UPSET BY A SWINGING BARN DOOR

Ten Year Old Son of James Scott Is Severely Hurt.

The ten year old son of James Scott had his right arm broken by being thrown from a barn door. He was standing in the doorway when the door blew shut with sufficient force to knock him upon a pile of stones. Dr. Pember was called and found that besides a broken arm the boy had sustained severe bruises.

"GATE OF HOPE" AJAR ON MAIN STREETNEW MISSION HAS BEEN ORGANIZED.

J. H. Parmley Presides Over a Meeting to Arrange For An Undenominational Work, Including Evangelistic Meetings and a Rescue Department.

Once a carriage top factory; later a boarding house for telegraph students, the old building next to the Windsor Hotel on Main street has become headquarters of a new Janesville mission. "The Gate of Hope" is now its name.

A meeting of those interested in the mission was held at 41 North Main street, next door to the new mission, last night. About fifteen were present and J. H. Parmley, a graduate of the Pennsylvania Bible Institute in Philadelphia, presided. He outlined the plan in brief as including: Evangelistic meetings each night. Mothers' meeting and children's meeting weekly. Class for Bible study weekly. Open air meetings. Visits to the homes of the poor. A rescue work, to organize as soon as practical.

Miss Mary Kimball will be matron of the rescue work as soon as it is organized. The entire lower floor of the building will be occupied—partly as a place of meeting and partly with the rescue work.

"We propose to work on undenominational lines and independent of any church," said Mr. Parmley today, "although we shall be thankful for any aid we can get. We aim to reach a class that the churches do not reach. In general, the methods of the mission will be the same as those of missions in larger cities."

MARTIAL MUSIC INSPIRED HORSES

Two Unimportant Accidents on Milwaukee Street During the Day.

The life and drum corps made such stirring music on West Milwaukee street today, that there were two small smash-ups. In front of Lowell's store a farmer's team became frightened and backed into a buggy occupied by Miss Haviland, damaging the vehicle, and badly frightening the occupant. A horse belonging to Dr. Q. O. Sutherland, overturned its buggy, but did little damage.

NEW SWITCH ON THE CAR LINE

Preparations are being made to handle Buffalo Bill's Crowds Expediently.

An extra switch is being built by Superintendent Cummins of the street railway in anticipation of crowds on Buffalo Bill's day. The switch is on Milton avenue between Prospect avenue and Glenn street. Superintendent Cummins and a force of men commenced the work this morning, and a switch is expected to be in working order by the latter part of the week.

DEATH ENDS EARTHLY WOES

Funeral of W. E. Richardson.

Flowers almost hid the coffin of William E. Richardson from view this afternoon, when the funeral services were held. The number of elaborate and beautiful designs was unusual—an anchor, a wreath and Gates Ajr being among the most noticeable pieces about the grave. Services were held at the South Academy street home of Mrs. Mary E. Richardson, at 3 o'clock, the interment being in Oak Hill. Rev. R. K. Manaton, of the First M. E. church, officiated, and the pall bearers were V. P. Richardson, H. V. Allen, M. P. Richardson, A. Schaller, Fred Richardson and Thomas E. Welch.

Funeral of E. D. Tallman.

The funeral of Edgar D. Tallman will be held at the residence on North Jackson street, at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, Rev. Dr. Lodge, officiating. The pall bearers will be J. M. Bostwick, Horace McElroy, B. F. Crosett, R. M. Bostwick, George M. McKay and W. T. Vankirk.

THE SMILE ON OUR BABY'S FACE.

God's angel was hidden to make her fair,
So he wove the sunshine into her hair,
He took of the midnoon's cloudless skies
And fashioned therefrom her two blue eyes.
He washed her white with the sinless snows
And painted her cheeks with the dawn's faint rose.
He dimpled her tiny hands and feet,
He made her sunny and soft and sweet,
He molded her rosy white limbs with art,
He got her from heaven a pure child heart;
Then he kissed her lips and her brow and eyes
And brought her, sleeping, from paradise.
Such virtue lies in those kisses three
That, how so weary at heart are we,
The look and the smile on our baby's face
Bring rest and comfort and endless grace.

A GHOST COMMUTER.

The wind drove the hail and sleet violently against the car windows, and what with its melancholy howling, accompanying the incessant rattle of the panes, I could hardly hear the shrieks of the locomotive's whistle as the train plunged through the dense darkness. It was a hard night to travel, and I did not wonder that the car was empty save for the man who had just seated himself beside me. Such being the case, however, I could not but feel surprised that this single other passenger should have crowded into my seat when he might have had a whole one to himself. I cannot say that I was indignant, for though he forced me to move toward the drafty window he was company, and I had felt lonely from the very beginning of the forlorn trip on the midnight express. Then, too, he was such a mild, harmless looking fellow.

I glanced toward him, intending to open the conversation, when my eye fell upon the time table in which he was deeply engrossed. It was a thumb worn piece of paper, and no wonder, for across the top I read in big black type, "To go into effect on April 1, 1884."

It seemed strange that a man should consult a train schedule 11 years old. My curiosity was aroused, and I drew my own time table from my pocket and held it toward him.

"Pardon me, sir, but perhaps this will be of more use to you. Where are you going?"

"Thank you," he replied sadly, "but you cannot help me. I would that you could, though. You see, I am bound for Tutherford, but it seems that I will never get there."

"Tutherford?" I exclaimed. "Why, you are on the wrong train!"

I knew this place well as one of the prettiest little suburban villages on the line of the New York, Lackahudson and Western, but I also was aware that this train never stopped there and that we had long since passed it.

"That is just the devil of it," replied my companion vigorously. A melancholy smile passed over his pale face, and then he added: "I've been getting on the wrong train for 11 years. But excuse me, sir, you are sitting on my beefsteak."

Curiosity now gave place to astonishment. My first impulse was to believe that I had a madman for a companion, but his every look belied such an idea. Every detail of his clothing denoted extreme neatness and self respect. He was a small, slender man, with a slightly bald head and clean shaven face. At his feet were two large, neatly done up bundles; at his side and partly under me was a third parcel, wrapped in brown paper, which I had no reason to believe contained meat.

"A thousand pardons," I said, rising so that he could rescue his steak from destruction. "I am afraid that I have ruined it. I was not aware that I was sitting on anything."

"Little wonder," he replied quietly. "No human being could feel that steak. And as for injuring it, I purchased it 11 years ago and have been trying to get it home to Tutherford ever since. To make things plain, that is a phantom beefsteak."

I broke out into a hearty laugh and exclaimed, "You are either considerable of a wag, sir, or else an idiot."

My fellow traveler drew himself up and cried hotly: "Do you know whom you are addressing? I am the late R. G. Jones, sir, for many years a leading citizen of Tutherford."

"The late R. G. Jones of Tutherford!" I retorted, and then I made a motion to give him a little jovial dig in the ribs, but to my horror my hand went right through him and struck the arm of the seat on his other side. He smiled. I drew back in amazement.

I will not attempt to depict my sensations. Wonder gave way to utter astonishment, astonishment to horror, horror to fright. But this last emotion passed, for I knew that there was no escape. I could not leave the car, and then the very appearance of the ghost was so peaceable and respectable that a sense of security came to me. Reason prevailed, and I soon found myself traveling on the best of terms with my strange companion.

"I see you travel on a pass, Mr. Dockboy," said the late R. G. Jones after our relationship had assumed a state of mutual confidence. "That is why I made myself known to you. I suppose you have a pull on this road."

"My fourth cousin is the wife of the president of the New York, Lackahudson and Western," I replied proudly, for I was not a little vain about this relationship.

"That is good news for me," began the late R. G. Jones. "You see, Mr. Dockboy, I have long needed a friend with some influence on the road, for I want to have this train stopped at Tutherford just once."

8.30 and took the 8.31 for town. At just 5.13 o'clock in the evening I reached the Jersey City station and boarded the train for home. It so happened that for the last five years of my life I always got on the third car from the engine and took the third seat from the rear. It became a habit with me. I was known and respected on the road, and there was a tacit understanding among the other commuters that that place should always be reserved for me. This is the same car, No. 335, and the very same seat."

"And you are haunting it?" I asked, for the light was beginning to break. "Temporarily and accidentally," replied the late R. G. Jones. "When I can get this train stopped at Tutherford, I will get off and go back to my old home. Don't you remember seeing in the papers about ten years ago how R. G. Jones, a prominent citizen of Tutherford, succumbed to an attack of heart failure brought on by overexertion while trying to catch the 5.13?"

"Oh, yes, I recall that well. A very sad case, indeed." Of course I didn't, but that didn't matter.

The late R. G. Jones looked grateful.

"That was when I became a ghost," he said. "A few days later I received my orders to proceed to Tutherford and haunt my old home. There have always been strange and confused ideas existing about ghosts. These impressions, that we do everything in a higgledy piggledy way are all erroneous—decidedly erroneous. I couldn't go sailing back home in any way but an orderly one—by train, just as I did when I was not late. And, moreover, custom required that I should travel on car No. 335, third seat from the rear, as I had done day in and day out for years. So I went to the station with my phantom umbrella, bundles and beefsteak. Promptly at 5.12 I got off the ferry, stopped at the newsstand which is run for the phantom commuters and purchased a sporting extra of a phantom evening paper, repaired to the train shed and got on this car No. 335, and took this very seat. But the train did not start as usual. It was midnight before we left the station, and then, to my horror, we whirled through Tutherford and never made a stop until we reached the junction 60 miles west. I will not dwell on my sorrow when I realized my predicament. Car 335 had been shifted to the midnight express, and until it could be stopped at Tutherford I was doomed to haunt this uncomfortable seat instead of my own pretty suburban home."

"Years have passed since then, and every night I have got on the same car and sat in this same seat, oftentimes crowded between two men, who could not see me, always doomed to go whirling by the familiar little station without a speck of a chance of getting off. Did you ever travel in the same car seat with two fat women with babies and bundles?"

"No," I replied. "But I can conceive more pleasant positions."

"Yet such has many a time been my fate," continued the late R. G. Jones, in spectral mournfulness. "I have traveled with noisy drummers, with chattering Italians, opium smelling Chinese, with every possible kind of man that it is unpleasant for a sensitive man like I was to sit in the same seat with. Once, in desperation, I made myself visible to the conductor and pleaded with him to stop the train at Tutherford. He refused absolutely, and not only that, he demanded my ticket. I got out my commutation card, seven years out of date, and handed it to him. He asked me if I thought he was a fool and used very violent and personal language. When I told him I could not pay, he declared that he would put me off the train. 'Please leave me off at Tutherford,' I said foolishly. I have regretted those words greatly, for the man saw that nothing would suit me better than to get off the train, and he carried me to the end of the line. Since then I have in vain watched a chance to speak to some one who has a pull on the road. They have been wearisome years to me, and when tonight the longed for opportunity came I seized it. I saw you had a pass."

"My dear Mr. Jones," I said, for I was deeply affected by the story of my companion, who, with his eyes filled with cloudlike tears, was now leaning eagerly toward me, awaiting my reply. "You have my sympathy. I have heard much of ghosts, but you are the first I ever met. Your story is a sad one, and I will do what I can to alleviate your sufferings. I see what you want. You wish to have this car stopped at Tutherford so that you can get off the train like an ordinary phantom and obey your instructions to haunt your own house."

A look of joy and expectancy came over the phantom's face.

"You have my word that I will use my influence with my cousin, the president of the New York, Lackahudson and Western, to have this train stopped just once at Tutherford. I will take such steps as soon as I get back to town."

"It is almost daylight, and we are approaching the junction, where I always get off," said the late R. G. Jones. His voice was husky, but a gleam of hope and happiness transfigured his face. "I must leave you now. It is probable that I will never be able to repay your kindness, Mr. Dockboy, but you will have the consciousness of having done a noble deed in freeing a phantom commuter from an awful thrall."

Then he gathered up his phantom bundles and walked down the aisle, but before he reached the door he had passed from my sight.

I kept my word to him. Many were the subterfuges I used to have the midnight express stopped at Tutherford, but I succeeded, thanks to my cousin, the president of the road, and the knowledge that the respectable and late R. G. Jones has at last got off that train at his late place of residence after 11 long years of travel has been to me a source of continued satisfaction.—New York Sun.

Good News From South Dakota.

The glorious results of this season's harvest of golden grain will pour a stream of sound money into the pockets of every Dakota farmer.

South Dakota has thousands of acres of choice farming and ranch land lying east of the Missouri river, and within one day's ride from Chicago or Milwaukee, which can now be bought reasonably cheap, but which before the end of another year may be advanced in price.

The stock raising industry in South Dakota is profitable and eastern capital is now being invested in cattle and sheep growing in that state.

Diversified farming, the growing of live stock, and the products of the dairy, are placing South Dakota foremost in the ranks of the successful western states.

Those desiring full information on the subject and particularly those who wish to seek a new home or purchase land are requested to correspond with W. E. Powell, General Immigration Agent, 410 Old Colony Building, Chicago, Ill., or to the local agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway.

G. A. R. Encampment to St. Paul and Minneapolis—Daylight Trip.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will run through coaches to St. Paul and Minneapolis on August 31, from Janesville and the Mineral Point division, leaving Janesville at 9:40 a. m. and arriving at St. Paul at 9:30 p. m. This train will have G. A. R. posts from several places, and will run through the scenic route. This will give the public a chance to see the country en route. Fare for the round trip only six dollars and fifty cents. Tickets may be extended for return until September 30, by depositing ticket with joint agent at St. Paul. Get your tickets early.

About the Deils of The Wisconsin.

Parties of ten or more going to and returning from the Deils of Wisconsin in a body, may make the trip at half fare, with fifty cents added for each person for steamer coupon, any day from June 5 to September 30. Tickets good for three days. Every Friday and Saturday tickets will be sold at a fare and a third with fifty cents added for steamer for round trip, to any number good for return until Monday, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway.

For Ocean Steamship Tickets

Via the Beaver Line from Montreal—ubec to Liverpool, or via any steamship line crossing the Atlantic, at lowest rates for first cabin, second cabin and steerage, both outward and prepaid, apply to P. L. Hinrichs, agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., at Janesville, Wis., or address C. F. Wenham, Gen'l Steamship Agent, 48 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

The whole system is drained and undermined by indolent ulcers and open sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve speedily heals them. It is the best pile cure known. C. D. Stevens

Home Seekers' Excursions.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell home seekers' round trip excursion tickets to points on its own lines in Iowa, the Dakotas, northern Minnesota and northern Wisconsin. Also, to points on the other railways south, southwest, west and north, crossing several states and territories, at half fare plus $2. Limited to twenty-one days. Date of sale, August 4, 18; September 1, 15 and 29; October 6 and 20

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Excursion Rates—National Republican League at Milwaukee.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway will sell excursion tickets to Milwaukee, August 23, 24, and 25th at half fare, good for return until and including August 29, on account of the National Republican League meeting.

Extremely Low Rates to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

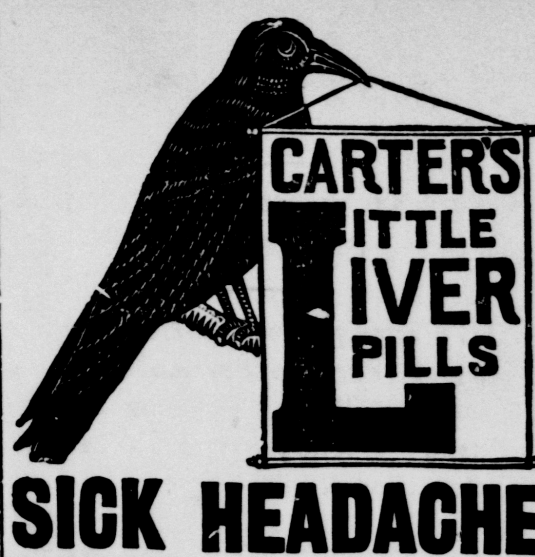

On account of the G. A. R. National Encampment, which opens at St. Paul, September 1, 1896, the North-Western Line, will sell excursion tickets to St. Paul or Minneapolis and return at exceedingly low rates. For full particulars call on agents of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway.

Don't trifle away time when you have cholera morbus or diarrhoea. Fight them in the beginning with DeWitt's Colic and Cholera cure. You don't have to wait for results. They are instantaneous and it leaves the bowels in healthy condition. C. D. Stevens

Theories of cure may be discussed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want quick relief; and One Minute Cough Cure will give it to them. A safe cure for children. It is "the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results." C. D. Stevens.

Harvest Excursions

In order to give everyone an opportunity to see the grand crops in the western states and enable the intending settler to secure a home, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry has arranged to run a series of harvest excursions to South and North Dakota and to other states in the west, northwest and southwest on the following dates: July 21, August 4 and 18, September 1, 15, 29 and October 6 and 20 at the low rate of two dollars more than one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be good for return on any Tuesday or Friday within twentyone days from date of sale. For rates, time of trains and further details apply to any ticket agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry.

When we say that today we are offering the best Wash Goods bargain of the whole season we are not trifling with the truth.

Dainty Dainties at 7 1-2c--

Some of them are of a twenty cent retail value, but a very recent visit to the market landed them at our doors at our own price, and they are yours at just a trifle more. There are plain lace stripes of pink, blue, lavender and cream and many beautiful designs and patterns which have not been shown in Janesville's market this season. Just think of the price---7½ cents, and 10 yards is a pattern; 75 cents for a nobby summer dress. There are 40 pieces in the lot and you will be agreeably surprised when you see them. Take us at our word and come prepared

Shirt Waists--

The 39 cent price is fast clearing them out, and of the 20 dozen we had at the start half are gone.

NOTES OF NOVELTIES.

Russia Calf and White Leather—Yellow Shoes With Black Tips.

Black stockings, once worn universally, are declining a little from favor, although they are by far the most becoming. White stockings are threatened, but the same intrepid spirit that defied fashion to prevail in the matter of hoopskirts will, it is to be hoped, suppress the manifestation of these monstrosities, which are only pardonable with white shoes. Parisian women who can afford several pairs of silk stockings to accompany each gown are wearing their hosiery en suite with the costume—gray with gray, dark blue with dark blue, and so on.

White costumes and accessories continue to be extremely fashionable. Very light colors are also worn universally.

Shoes of Russia calf and of white leather are used for out of town wear. Some of the yellow shoes have a black tip.

Umbrellas and parasols are seen in great variety. Sometimes parasols of very beautiful silk, but quite plain, are carried with elegant gowns, but again there is no limit to the ruffles of lace, frills and platings of gauze and other ornamentation. One of the latest styles is a parasol of white moire with applications of embroidery.

Crepe de chine is made up into very elaborate and fashionable gowns, the princess form being often used. Embroidered lawn is a favorite trimming. The sleeves are frequently of half length, consisting of one drooping puff.

Belts of white or gray kid are narrow and are jeweled with gold and enamel.

There is a fancy in Paris for plaid corsets with sleeves of plain material. The skirt matches the sleeves.

An illustration is given of a costume of sable and white striped silk with pompadour designs scattered over it. The skirt is flat in front and has three godets at the back. The bodice has a figure of sable passementerie, which opens over a chemise of pink silk gauze with coquilles. The close sleeve of striped silk has a draped puff of pink silk gauze. The narrow draped belt and the shoulder knots are of jacqueminot silk, the collar of white gauze.

SLEEVES AND ACCESSORIES.

The Corset Revived, Shirred and Decorated—About the Bolero.

Sleeves continue to diminish. In theory they are quite tight to the arm, but practically they are so draped and decorated about the upper part that in effect they are not very much smaller than those of last season. Both styles are worn interchangeably, the large balloons lending themselves so well to the light fabrics now fashionable that they still remain in favor. It is probable, however, that the closer style will obtain when heavy winter goods are being made up.

The corset, revived this season, has been received with as much enthusiasm as

FOULARD COSTUME.

It were an entirely new thing. It is not usually plain, preference being shown for folded, shirred and decorated ones. The bolero also is enjoying great favor, and the two fashions figure together on many bodices with the addition of a guimpe or chemise. Most frequently the bolero and corset, made of silk or of material like the skirt, are worn over a guimpe of embroidery or of lace insertion, but sometimes the contrary is the case—that is, over a corsage of material like the costume are a bolero and corset of guimpe, renaisance embroidery, point d'angleterre, embroidered net or any one of the many suitable webs.

Valenciennes lace is this year having its revenge for the long and unmerited neglect it has sustained. It is the only lace that looks as well after it is washed as it did before, and with such a characteristic it should be continually appreciated. Moreover, it is almost impossible to tell the imitation lace from the real, so close and accurate is the copy, and this is a valuable quality when an unlimited number of yards is required for one gown.

The costume shown in the sketch is of foulard, having a green ground and a pink and white figure. The skirt is trimmed around the foot with two ruffles of black mousseline de soie, and the tablier is framed by steel galloon, coquilles of gauze being arranged along the upper half of the bands. The bodice is trimmed with coquilles of black mousseline de soie, and the sleeves are finished at the wrist with a band of galloon and platings of mousseline de soie. The belt is of black silk fastened by two paste buttons.

The Danger of Delay.

"George!" she screamed. "My neck!"
"What's the matter?"
"There's a pillcatter!"
"A what?"
"A tappekiller!"
"What in the world do you mean?"
"Oh, dear," she moaned, as she clutched him frantically. "A kitter-paller! You know, George! A tappekiller!"
"Oh," said George, with evident relief, and he proceeded to brush the future butterfly away.—Bay City Chat.

In the Renaissance Era.

"By the way, Caesar," asked Lucretia Borgia, fanning herself languidly, "is the count disposed of satisfactorily?"
"I rather think so," replied her brother, significantly, displaying a small but exquisitely-chased vial, which the druggist had carelessly neglected to label; "I got the drop on him, so to speak, at luncheon."
"Tis well—but I do wish, Caesar, you would cure yourself of the habit of using slang. It is positively demoralizing."—Truth.

PRINCIPALLY IMAGINATION.

"Well, at any rate, professor, I have the bump of imagination, I hope."
"Well, yes; I think I may say your brain is principally imagination."—Leslie's Popular Monthly.

THE workman often eats his lunch on the same bench where he does his work. The office man turns his desk into a dining-table. Neither gets the out of doors exercise he needs, neither takes the proper time for eating. It is small wonder that the digestion of both gets out of order. In such cases Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come to their assistance by aiding nature in taking care of the food. The cause of nine-tenths of the sickness of the world is constipation. From this one cause come indigestion, disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, biliousness, headaches, flatulence, heartburn, impurity of the blood and the serious complications that follow. To begin with, constipation is a little thing, and a little thing will cure it. The "Pleasant Pellets" are tiny, sugar coated granules. They will perfectly cure the worst cases of constipation and indigestion. If the druggist tries to sell you some other pill that pays him greater profit, just think of what will best pay you.

Douthart Nominated for Governor.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 19.—The state convention of the national party, representing the bolters from the national prohibition convention, met here Tuesday. Allegiance to the national party organized in Pittsburg in May last is affirmed and the platform of that convention is heartily indorsed. J. R. Silver of Shawnee county was nominated for chief justice and Henry F. Douthart of Brown county for governor.

Two More Bodies Recovered.

Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 19.—The bodies of William Dean and Nicholas Roach were dug out of the ruins of Music hall shortly after midnight Monday. All of the injured are expected to recover, except John Thorson. There is much talk of suits for damages, and of the possibility of prosecution for criminal negligence.

Delaware Democrats Name Men.

Dover, Del., Aug. 19.—The democratic state convention in session here nominated the following ticket: For governor—E. W. Tunnell of Sussex; for congressman—L. Irving Handy of Newcastle; for electors—John R. Roney of Newcastle, John Harrington of Kent and Paynter Prame of Sussex. John F. Sauberry of the committee on resolutions said that the resolutions were the result of a compromise between the various factions in the party. They indorse the Chicago platform and pledge the electors chosen to support Bryan and Sewall.

Gov. Chase Left Little Property.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—The administrator of the estate of the late Gov. Chase made his final report Monday. After the debts were paid the widow received $612. Gov. Chase had invested heavily in mining stocks that are considered worthless.

Plans for Funeral.

Hamilton, Mass., Aug. 19.—The funeral of Abigail Dodge, "Gail Hamilton," will take place from Hamilton Congregational church at 3:30 on Thursday. The Rev. Mr. Nichols, an old friend of the family, will officiate. It is understood that the family are willing that the villagers and personal friends of Miss Dodge shall attend, but do not countenance the idea of a public funeral.
